Dear Parent/Carer

I have purchased a thorough and concise revision guide AQA A Level Psychology which I will be distributing to your son/daughter to help them revise for their exams. If students return this textbook after their final exams in a good condition so that it can be used by another pupil next year there will be no cost involved. However the students will be held responsible for the safe return of their book which cost £16.99. I would be grateful if you could encourage your son/daughter to make extensive use of them and am looking forward to speaking with you in December at the Parents' Consultation Evening.

Yours sincerely

I Scott
